Bayambang Campus' Joward P. Medina Elected as PSU Federated Student Government President

Joward P. Medina, the current president of the Supreme Student Council (SSC) at Pangasinan State University's Bayambang Campus, was elected as the Federated Student Government President for Academic Year 2023-2024. The election took place on November 16 at the Telesforo N. Boquiren Convention Hall in Lingayen, Pangasinan, with 90 SSC officers—10 representatives from each of PSU's nine campuses—participating. The event, facilitated by the Office of the Director for Student Services and Alumni Affairs, opened with a Miting de Avance, allowing candidates to share their platforms and visions for the student body. Medina's election underscores the Bayambang Campus' legacy of student leadership and the PSU community's dedication to democratic engagement and active student representation across campuses.
